

Test Data access

The terms of this access to the corpus are outlined below.

You understand and agree to the following conditions:

1. You will be given temporary access to a system that will allow you to listen to the samples over the Internet.
2. If you download any data, you agree to remove all samples from your hard drive immediately once you have completed reviewing the samples. (within 90 days of access)
3. You may not copy the samples.
4. You may not give access information to others.
5. You may not give the ratings of the samples to others.
6. You may not allow individuals not involved in your research and named in the project to listen to or read these files.
7. You may not use any personal, identifiable information contained in the samples in your research report or article.
8. You may not include any information about the content of the prompts to any individual or in any presentation or journal article.

I understand and agree to the conditions set forth in this addendum.
